

THE BENEFITS OF A COACH

Together, you sensibly address the emotional, social, community, and financial challenges, as well as, the legal process. In providing support when you need it the most, your coach:

Creates a safe setting for smart decisions, thoughtful action and mutual respect

Teaches skills for managing the pain while staying focused on goals

Facilitates co-parenting agreements everyone can live with

Sparks successful major life transition

Helps you put family first

Explores ways to keep you out of court

Saves you money in legal fees

Develops clarity, focus, and confidence

Frees you to concentrate on the needs of children or demands of a job

Generates the best solutions for all.

MOVING BEYOND DIVORCE

Coaching helps you establish a sense of self-respect as you approach a positive vision of a new life in the future.

Manage your reorganized family jointly.

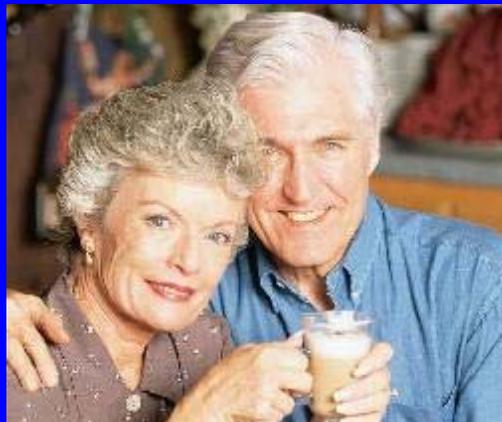

Optimize your strengths and abilities.

Become more direct and solution-oriented.

Develop your new social connections.

DO YOU WANT TO SAVE YOUR MARRIAGE?

A family coach promotes marriage healing whenever possible. Given his expertise regarding stages of child, adult and family development, Dr. Miller can also help you maximize your parenting skills.

Join me in creating a different way to resolve conflict and address the highest priorities and needs of all.

WHAT IS DIVORCE COACHING?

A coach collaborates openly and supportively with you, your Financial Planners, and your Attorneys to produce solutions instead of casualties.

A coach teaches you strategies for a dignified separation.

A coach helps you build mutually rewarding relationships and a successful, reorganized family life.
